“ Uncle Jim was the best! Always so kind, wise, and funny. He was always ready to help out when needed. We all loved spending summer cookouts and Thanksgiving dinners with him and family (including the times he beat us all in dominoes). Joe will always remember his love for anything cars including watching races with him, fixing his go cart, and anything else that needed repair when visiting (no matter where he was). Uncle Jim, we love you and we will miss you. Aunt Fran, Melissa, and Michael - we are so sorry and pray that your wonderful memories will carry you through until you meet again.
