“ Jim was the husband a woman could ever have had. We had thirty_ eight wonderful years together. Life seems very empty now. I will never forget him or his voice or his touch. I know we will be together again. I love you Jim and I know you will always be with me.

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. My sons are still grieving the loss of their father, John Caloia. John and James were childhood friends. Please take comfort in the fact that your father was a good man, and as the years go by you will see him in your children's personality traits and gestures. Know that he lives on in you and your children.

*You are in our Prayers,
Linda, John and Chris Caloia*
