“ To the family of JD (James). I am so so sorry for the loss of you Son, Brother and Grandson. I can not even imagin how you are feeling. I know my heart was breaking. He always called me his second Mom and I always call him Son. I loved when he would come and visit in Waterford. We will never ever forget such a fine young man. My daughter was the one that witnessed everything that happen the early morning of November 12th. I am getting her through this the best I can. She did her best to try and help him. She still loved him and will forever miss him. God Bless You and the family. We love ya JD, rest in peace Son.
