“ He was not only my uncle but my godfather. He sent me my first flowers for my 16th birthday (although I will admit Aunt Mary likely played the bigger role in that!). So similar to my Dad in looks, the two brothers were great friends and I have many fond and loving memories of time spent together. I hope the two of them are having a great reunion in heaven.

“ "Papa" Kelly was like a grandfather to our children. Some of our favorite memories are getting a personal guided tour of the trains at Greenfield Village. He was so patient and loving around the kids throughout the 30+ years we considered him one of our Michigan grandpas! All the Hudsons will miss him greatly. A donation to Angela Hospice has been given in his name. Dree and Charlie Hudson
