“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear Alice, Dawn and Jimmy, I am so sorry to hear about Jim's death. I am sure he will be missed very much. I wish there was something I could do to make your loss easier, but no one has the power to do that but God. I will keep all of you in my prayers. Believe me when I tell you I think of you often and always with fondness and love. Alice, think of the gift it will be when you get to heaven and Jim is already there waiting for you. Stay strong. Love, Betty and Duke

“ Even though Jim wasn't my blood grandpa, he was the grandpa to my brother. I have always considered him my grandpa. I wasn't able to see him that much, because of the miles apart, but he was and will always be in my heart. I am so thankful i was able to see him this passed weekend, as well as the rest of the family. Grandpa Jim always seemed very confident, couragous, and strong. He faught and hung on for as long as he could. When tears fall, all i can think of is that he isnt suffering anymore, and he is in a better place. He will be looking down on all of us, especially Grandma Alice, and Jimmy and Aunt Dawn. I love you Grandpa Jim, you were loved by so many and you will always be in all of our hearts <3
