“ Hi! My name is Maria. You don?t know me and I never got a chance to meet James, but while glancing thru the death notices in the Detroit News, I noticed that you lost your dear loved one. I have also lost dear friends and family members to death but have found comfort in a few scriptures that offer hope for the future. A well-known prophet, Isaiah, was inspired to write by God some words of comfort. Isaiah 25:8 promises that God will ?actually swallow up death forever? and he will ?wipe the tears from all faces?. Hosea 13:14 promises that God will redeem our loved ones from death. This will all happen soon in the near future. I hope you have found comfort in these scriptures. If you?d like more information as to how we can be a part of this in the future, please feel free to e-mail me at mariawindom@aol.com. I look forward to hearing from you, but if not, know that my prayers are with you. Your neighbor, Maria

“ Your Dad and I shared our birthday. My parents talk about your family all the time. Uncle Bob and Aunt Elma June; We will miss your Dad's mischievious smile and tall tails He was such a story teller. We can't imagine losing someone we love so close to the Holidays. Know that had we known we would have been there. Again know that we share your lose of such a good and mischievious man, please give your Mom a hug for us. They had such a life for so many years our thoughts are with you
