“ To the Family of: James Strong Sr. I'm truly sorry for your loss. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy. Although I didn't know the family personally, However, we share the pain of losing someone we love in death. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "Throw all anxiety upon him because he cares for you.- (1Peter 5:7) For he is, "near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."-(Psalm 34:18) It is God's desire that you see James again in the very near future when "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" and live forever under peaceful conditions right here on a restored paradise earth.-(John 5:28,29; Rev. 21:3,4; Psalm 83:18) May you find a measure of peace until then. Also read and meditate on God's promise of a resurrection.

“ My prayers are with our whole family. Aunt Charlotte, Mom and Uncle Jim the 3 of them are healed, from anymore sicknesses this old world dishes out. They hurt no more. We have a big family and all of our lives were touched by the three that passed away. We all sat at Aunt Rosie and Uncle Jim's Table drinking coffee. (Great Times!)I Thank God for those times. I send my love to my "FAMILY" I am praying for each of you Give Aunt Rosie a BIG HUG for me. Next Christmas we will have more peace and joy same for the New Year.

“ Uncle Jim,

I was blessed in seeing you over the holiday's and want you to know you will be missed by all. Your family is strong and will watch over Aunt Rosie so don't you worry.

I know you're smiling down on us with all our family members around you safe with the knowledge that one day, we will all be sitting around your kitchen table drinking coffee like the old days.

“ Well grandpa what can I say, I am still in shock, hard to believe that you wont be sitting your chair in the kitchen!!!! We miss you very much, Justin still ask's about you.

BTW I got that picture of us eating the toast on the bed!!!! hahaha good time's.

And enjoy my hat grandpa because it was cold today at work lol.

“ Dad, the family is calling me the rock. I am nothing but a pebble without all of them. I am so very very proud of them. What a privilege to be trusted with these life decisions and what a privilege to be trusted with your last wishes.

Please Dad... touch each and everyone of us in your special way as I know you will. Let us believe in your life ever-after, and your needed "visits". Iris, dragonflies, mushrooms, smells. We will each be touched by you. Forgive us for our anger when we don't understand, and our tears when we just plain miss you.

We promise to take care of Mom. She hurts Dad, we can't make that go away, because we can't make you come back, but we all promise to try and make her life just a little easier.

Dad we all miss you, and Dad we sure do love you. xoxoxox Joann, the one of many pebbles.
