“ We never spend a whole lot of time together but you're my best friend's brother and were always kind. I remember one year you and Darlene gave me a ride all the way from Livonia up to Spread Eagle to your families cabin. Not a short drive. I always appreciated that and appreciate that you were such a good brother to my best friend. Tell your parents I said hello and Bob as well.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss and are sending you all our love, support, and prayers. My mother, LindaLee Warren, was best friends with Jim's wife Darlene, and our lives have been intertwined since the time I was born. We have always considered the Symons a part of our extended family. I will always be happy and grateful for the amazing barbecue Jim hosted for our family when we came out to visit in the summer of 2018. We had games, barbecue and love, joy and laughter. Love, Michele Brown.

“ My heart breaks each of you. Your dad was cared so much for each of you! You were never far from his heart. He worried and longed for the best for you. Wanting you to be happy and find your path. I can't imagine losing your families anchor. I pray that you come together for each other and give each other grace as you grieve a wonderful man. I wish I could be there in person. Know you are in my heart and in prayers!!! Hang on to each other and remember each of you experienced your dad in different ways and each of you will grieve your loss different too! Love you!
