“ My deepest Sympathy to the Jose Family. I'm very sorry for your loss of Jamie he truly will be missed by all who knew and loved him. I did not get a chance to meet Jamie or the Family, But I want to share something very encouraging from the Bible. "If a man die, shall he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job chapter 14 verse 14 King James Version) Perhaps you, too, have wondered about this, How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions? Well the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. To know more about what does the Bible really teach go to our official website at www.jw.org

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Jamie's family and friends. Although we did not have the pleasure of knowing Jamie personally, we are touched by what an amazing person we can see he was, through the stories and pictures that have been shared by his family. Our world lost four wonderful people together on June 21, and the heavens became richer. Sandy, Jim, Troy and Jamie are gone from us for now... but never forgotten. Until we meet again...

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I do not know you all but wanted to express sympathy for your loss, my heart aches for you because of this tragedy. Jamie seemed like a good man, husband, father. May you all find comfort and hope in God's word where He promises very soon to bring about a changed condition to this earth where sickness, accidents, death, all things that cause so much hurt and pain, will be a thing of the past. (Ps. 37:29; 1Cor. 15:26; Rev. 21:3,4)

“ To: Vicki & Larry & All Family members From my personal experience there is nothing more painful than burying your son. Griefing is a long process, I know you'll both not let anyone tell you how long that process will take, If ever...a tear falls, no matter when, there are those of us that will understand...Hugs to you Both, Donna (Bus Driver/co-worker) Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim an everlasting peace, Together with the lord

“ We moved last week and were without phones,mail, even TV. We were shocked and almost in disbelief when we got the news. Our hearts break at your loss. We love you and your family and Jamie was an integral part of that family. He is in the hands of God. May God give you, Braden, and Gabrielle His peace. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you.

“ When Jamie was stationed overseas, he emailed the parish office to let us know how much he and the guys in his unit appreciated being able to read the parish newsletter. Cathy offered to send more copies but he told her just the one was enough and greatly appreciated by everyone. Such a small thing to take the time to let us know of his appreciation -- surely it was a sign of the man. So sorry for your loss; may knowing that he is in the loving embrace of God the father be of comfort.

“ Jamie, I remember meeting you for the first time. You, Greg, Joe, Rodney, Mark joking around and the best of friends. I remember playing hacky sack outside, the yearly camping trip up north, playing euchre and times when I drove down river to hang out with you guys whenever I could. The joking around and talking seriously about life and the futures we wanted.

I remember when I heard you'd become an EMT etc. You became a loving husband to Jessica and father to your children. You put your life in harm's way for others here and overseas for your country and fellow man, woman and child. You put your heart and soul into everything you did for everyone your life touched or saved. It was an honor to meet and know you. I know others may have said this but knowing you made me a better person and for that I'm very grateful. I'll remember you as the first day I met you and the man you became and the inspiration and example you have left for us all. My heart goes out to everyone who loved or knew you, called you Son, Husband, Father, Brother, Friend, or Mentor. My prayers are with all of you. I pray God lift your heart, mind and soul and give you peace that passes all understanding and the strength you need to move forward in faith though it may not be easy. God Bless and Keep you always!

“ *Knowing Jamie was one of the greatest honors in my life. He was such an inspiration to me and everyone around him. Always looked to him as a big brother and always will. “ I know there is not enough flowers in the world to cover his grave, and not enough gold to buy back the warmth of his hand, but Jamie was the kind of man who would want you to flourish, to go on being the best person you can be. He would want you to be brave as he was in the war torn world he volunteered to face and he would want you to continue helping others as he has done. Jamie set a fine example for us all and if we could use him as our inspiration to be a better person then his life will have been given even greater meaning and the world will become a finer place. Our deepest sympathies.

“ My deepest sympathy to Jessica and the children as well as to Jamie's parents and in-laws. I remember how you were tough on me when I was dispatching but you helped me grow and taught me many things. You were a hard worker and very good at your job. Many people are alive today because of your caring attitude and your devotion to your field. No one understands why God brought you home early and you will be missed my many. Even though times are difficult now there will be difficult times later on when certain dates come around and if anyone needs a shoulder I am here for you. That is the one thing I remember about Jamie - no matter how busy he was he always had time to answer a question or be a comforting soul to someone in need. He was a great leader to me and many others. Rest in Peace.
