“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Too many years, conversations, and memories to count...So, we share this picture. These are Jane's tulips. She always enjoyed, and took great pride in her flowers. She was the neighborhood resident green thumb, always with advice from how to make the roses better, what to plant, where to plant it, and how/when to trim the trees for their best health. She loved nature, animals, and all things organic. She was always present with home grown tomatoes or herbs to share fresh from her own little garden. Our little Yorkie, Raimie, always loved and guarded her favorite friend, Jane. They spent hours together, over the years, with Raimie watching her every move, as Jane talked to her while she planted her flowers and tended her plants. If Jane was outside, Raimie scrambled to be with her. We will miss our conversations, we will miss the cats, we will miss our neighbor, and we will miss you most, our friend. We send our love on the wind--and every Spring blossom will bring you home again. With Love...The Winebarger Family

“ I thought I would sit and spend the day trying to tell you In words what you've meant to me in my life and I never realized how difficult that would be. It would take me an entire lifetime, because that's what I've spent with you, an entire lifetime. making memories, road trips, camping, traverse city with our families, sharing love, sharing kids, sharing food, wine, sharing families. Talking, listening Watching movies, dancing, hot tubbing ,roasting marshmallows, sunbathing, raising kids, cleaning our houses, And sometimes tearing them apart. Some times just doing nothing at all but being together and ,Mostly just loving each other And being spontaneous and Joyful every chance we had. Sharing secrets that some might not even believe and yet never ever never ever ever judging each other. Life will never be the same without you here to share with. your loving friendship, sisterhood, has meant the world to me. you have been the best friend a person could ask for. I know heaven is a better place with you in it! Tell my dad and your mom, Bobby, Alicia and grant that I love and miss them! I don't know how I'm going to go forward without you, but somehow I will because I know that's what you would expect! I love you!
