“ I don't even know where to begin we grew up together and got into trouble together, you were always such a force of nature. When i look back I can see us all playing 4 square, flashlight tag and baseball. Or we would drive all the way to school and decide in the parking lot we were gonna skip. My memories I have of us will always be close to my heart. May God wrap you in loving arms. My prayers will be for those you left behind because you are in a far greater place. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ Thank you Jane. Thank you for giving me a place to call home. Thank you for your kindness, your understanding. Thank you for truly making me a better man. Thank you MOST of all for your love. I'm sorry my love, for my shortcomings when it came to taking care of you. I apologize for that. THANK YOU JANE FOR EVERYTHING. I hope that you found your way home. I hope you found Phil waiting for you. I hope Heaven is better than they say. I hope God caught you in his hands. I HOPE. God bless you Jane. I LOVE YOU. ALWAYS HAVE, ALWAYS WILL. David
