“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Janice will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Janice again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Janice seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Jan, you are my dear freind, you have become a part of our family, we have shared so many good times, I beleive it was fate that brought us together almost 12 years ago. I wish so much you could be at the baby shower and to see baby anthony, but i know in my heart you will see him. Me, melissa and our entire family will miss you greatly, and you will never be forgotten, you are one of a kind. I must say one of the strongest women ive ever known. love you debbie

“ Janice will be missed for she was the sun shine here at Westgate Towers. She had a smile that would make you feel special and on a bad day she would make you fell better. Friends are hard to fine and when you have one leave you for a better place it leaves a void that you can never fill. Good Bye my friend Jan and may you rest in peace.
