“ To the Baker Family. I'm very sorry for the loss of your dear son, Jason he will most definitely be missed... I want to share what helps me to cope and to rely heavily upon God's promises. Losing a child is an unbearable pain that is hard to deal with. (2Timothy 3:1-5,13). But please be comforted in these words of Jesus Christ. "Most truly I say to YOU, He that hears my word and believes him that sent me (Jehovah God) has everlastiing life, and he does not come into judgment but has passed over from death to life. "Most truly I say to you, The hour is coming and it is now, when the DEAD will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live. "For just as the Father (Jehovah God) has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. (Notice these verses 28,29-"Do not marvel (wonder) at this, because the hour is coiming in which all those in the memorial tombs (God's memory) will hear (Jesus') voice and come out... So, these verses show as well as the whole context of chapter 5, what Jehovah God through his only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ will accomplish at God's appointed time. This is the confidence that I rely upon and trust in Jehovah's infallible word.- (John 5:24-30). To know more about this wonderful hope for our loved ones that await Jason who was so young and very much loved. And why does a loving God allow such bad things to happen to good people? “ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Jason will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Jason again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Jason seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
