“ Jay was our much loved brother-in-law. He was a great protector of his wife and children; and cared for them deeply. He was always so much fun!!! He was a man of many interests. We shall all miss him greatly. I know that he is in the garden looking down on us and smiling. Our lives, though seemingly sometimes long especially during difficult times, are really a blink of an eye compared to eternity. We shall all be together in eternity. Jay, until Jan, Jay, Sean, and Ashley along with the rest of us meet again....we love and miss you!

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Jan, Jays's children and sisters. Jay has been a dear friend longer than I can remember. I will miss his smile, laughter, and comraderie. Many many fond memories. He was and will remain a very special person.

“ Jay was my best friend and the kindest and most generous man I know. He loved his wife and children very much; something he demonstrated routinely through his words and his actions. I will miss him deeply but, am thankful for the many great memories of a great friend that I will embrace forever.
