“ *To the Baker Family. I'm so sorry for the loss of dear Jayne, she truly will be missed... I personally did not get the privilege of meeting her, perhaps I will in the new system of things, if Jehovah's will. Please be comforted by my prayers and thoughts that one day according to the Bible, if we remain loyal to our God Jehovah, we will have the joyous prospect of seeing Jayne again. "God...will wipe all tears from their eyes, and there will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain."-Revelation 21:3,4 Contemporary English Version. “ Jayne was always our "Buckingham family" little ray of sunshine. We were given a gift from God to have known her. Now she can shine down on all of us no matter how far away we have moved.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort knowing you will see Jane again under much better circumstances. I hope you find comfort in God's word the bible when it says: "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, outcry, nor pain be any more.." (Revelation 21:3,4)

“ Jayne was always such a treat to stop by the office. She and Jack have resumed their fun in heaven, I'm sure. My condolences, Margaret. Larry

“ I am so sorry to hear of the death of our loved one. During this difficult time, we can gain comfort from our God, Jehovah, who promises at Revelation 21:4 that soon death will be no more. We can also gain some relief from his words in Isaiah 26:19 where he promises that our dead ones will live again. I pray that these promises from God can bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.
