“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Dear Karen, Ed Kowaleski forwarded your message regarding your mom's passing. We are all saddened, at the same time, glad she was kept comfortable and peaceful. It is wonderful that the close friendship between all our parents "group" has impacted each of us "kids" in some way. I enjoyed visiting with your mom and dad when I was back in Michigan for 3 years helping my mom care for dad before he passed. I always refer to the time your dad went to Vail to attend a ski clinic for over 80 year old's on how to ski bumps safely. Your mom wasn't happy about it, but, I have to say that It inspires me every ski season!
We will be thinking of you and your family and all your mom's friends as you celebrate her life.

Sincerely, Mary Collins, Kathy, Maureen, Karen, Joan, Eileen.
