“ Dear Aunt Jean, I will always remember the good times at Tiger Stadium when you lived on Elizabeth. The fun we had at the ballgames can never be forgotten. I will always remember the compassion and caring you showed to me when I was hospitalized at age 15. The get well cards with dimes you sent to the hospital so I could call home. I will always remember speaking with you in the Kroger Store parking lot. It was then that I learned that diet orange was your favorite pop. I never would have guessed that one! I will always remember your 90th. birthday celebration. What a great time it was. You looked wonderful, so full of life and obviously enjoying everyone who came to celebrate with you. I was truly amazed at the size of your Family. Everyone was very nice and respectful, from the youngest to the oldest. This is truly a reflection of how you as a Mother, GrandMother and Great GrandMother was loved and respected. I can go on forever but I will close by saying, " I will always remember You"...
