“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Kappe Family. Jeanette was truly a blessing. She was a fighter and was an inspiration to all of the other patients in the treatment room. Her presence, laughter, and smile will be missed but her spirit will live forever.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Mark, Jesse and Michael: My thoughts and prayers are with each of you you this week. Mark - I remember a phone call about 3 years ago after you and Jeanette received the results of one of the bone scans. The two of you called us at the office to share the news. It was not good. I could hear she was very choked up and tears were in her eyes as Jeanette was telling us 'Marcus doesn't deserve this!' And she asked us to take care of you! What an amazing woman! She was never more worried about herself or her pain and suffering than she was about you and the boys and who would make sure you're well taken care of when she wasn't around to do it herself. Your lives were truly blessed by her presence in the short time she was around! Don't ever forget how much she loved each of you!

“ To Jeanette's Family, Where do we begin? Our heartfelt sympathy to all of you. We know there is much pain in your heart at this time. But we all know that she is now without pain and in the hands of the Lord. She sure tried her best to overcome this illness. Now that fight is over and a new life pain free begins. Please know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers and we will forever cherish the time we did get to spend with Jeanette. Just remember how much she loved all of you. Sincerely, Gil & Joyce
