“ Joyce and Family,

I read today about your mother, and am so sorry for your loss. Maybe you remember me from Girl Scouts at Precious Blood. My mother was the leader. Those were really special times. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Karen:

Please know that I have been thinking of you during this difficult time. When I saw Nakamura in the news my heart sank, and I began to remember how special you have always been to me. I always had such confidence in whatever you did or said, and your advise to me was always so right and so welcome. I surely have missed seeing you since 1997. I pray for your strength in the days to come, and am so sorry to hear about your mother. She must have been a wonderful woman to have raised you.

“ To Karen:
Karen-I was saddened to hear the news of your mom's passing earlier today. Since we are all products of our upbringing in many ways-I feel certain that your quick wit and positive attitude must have come from her!

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time-and look forward to seeing you at the annual WWL Christmas party smiling and laughing again!

“ Dear Joyce and Family,
Unfortunately I am on my way out of town this afternoon or I would have come to the funeral home to see you. I could not believe my eyes when I saw your Mother's notice in the Free Press. Joyce, I don't even know if you will remember me, but we were in the same girl scout troop at Precious Blood. I fondly remember the luaus at your home (with your Mom supplying us with leis) and the camping trips that our Moms helped chaperone. My own Mom died just over 6 years ago. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers and that I will offer my Mass for your Mom this weekend while I am out of town. May God bless you all and keep you strong through these next few days and in the months to come. With Deepest Sympathy, Kati Fennimore, 21520 Indian St., Southfield, MI 48034.
