“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dearest Jeff, I will always cherish our friendship. We never did get to go Zip Lining or attend a Tragically Hip concert together...but alas, I loved and appreciated you so much. You were so witty. I have such fond memories of all the fun times we had listening to really loud music, watching movies, lively conversations on all topics, our shared love of gardening. You were such a good cook. It was always such a treat when you brought food into work. You were a treasured friend, not only to me, but to my family as well. You were there for us when Howard was diagnosed with cancer. I will always be grateful for your generosity of spirit, love and support during that most difficult time. You have such a good and generous heart. You will never be forgotten and as Ogden Nash would say; you will “realio” and “trulio” be missed. Peace & Love to you.. Farewell my dear friend. Janet Finch
