“ Jeff was a person that you could count on. The last time I saw Jeff was at Nagel Precision, he was smiling and talking about his family. I pray that the family will remember the good times.

“ One of the most vivid memories I have of growing up on Vansull Street is the sound of the Bemis kids being summoned home by the low, long blast of the horn!! I think all of us kids knew that it was getting close to the time to go home when we heard that! I hold this and so many other memories close in my heart, and it is breaking for you at this time. My thoughts are with all of you now, and always.

“ I knew Jeff in high school. He was a leading member of the JGHS Mime troupe and I have so many funny and fond memories of him from that time. Of all the things I remember about Jeff, there are 2 that stand out in my mind the most. First is that no one, and I mean absolutely no one ever, could wear the Quo Vadis cape with the flair that Jeff did. When he wore that cape he had the debonair style of Fred Astaire channeled with the magic of all the great magicians rolled into one and topped off with the power of superman's cape. He could work that cape like it was a natural part of his body. Second is his gift of mime and the way he did "the alcoholic" piece. I will never forget it and even the memory of his performance gives me goosebumps. He has been taken from us too soon. My prayers go out to his family and friends and I hope that you find the strength to endure your loss and that the peace of God's love will soothe your aching heart.

Yes, I remember those day well. He loved eating stale potato chips and he and Steve had their own ice cream bowls with their names on them.

“ I'm so sad to hear this news. Jeff was a wonderful friend when I really need one in the past! He helped my daughters and me carve pumpkins and we used to have so many laughs. He taught me how to play Euchre. I'm saddened deeply to hear this news . I'm so sorry for your loss!

“ I can't believe I'm reading this. I am so very sorry. I have so many memories of Jeff. He and my exbrother in law were best friends. Once you met Jeff you remembered him forever. My thoughts and prayers are with his entire family. May all of your memories keep your heart full and give you comfort. ❤️ Rest In Heaven Jeff, thanks for the memories.
