“ To the Family of: Jenette Price. I'm truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one Jenette, she will truly be missed.... One thing that helps me to deal or cope with the death of a loved one is this Scripture of many (Revelation 21:3,4) reads: "God...will wipe away the tears from all faces. And there will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain."-Contemporary English Version. Also, remember that Jesus resurrected his dear friend Lazarus back to life, showing on a small scale what he will do in his Kingdom. (John chapter 11- whole context shows that Lazarus was in the tomb for 4 days! No matter how long our loved ones have been resting, God through his Son Jesus Christ will bring them back on a newly restored paradise earth where righteousness is to dwell. (Psalms 37:10,11,29) Please read these scriptures to bolster your faith in God's unfailing promises... I hope this gives some comfort

“ Kim,

I want to express my deepest condolences to you for the loss of your grandmother. I work as a greeter at the Vermeulan Funeral Homes, that is how I learned of your grandmother's death.

I went to Wayne Memorial High School with you (Class of 1977).

I pray the good Lord will console you and your family during this time of loss and sadness.

Sincerely,

Melody Harris
