“ So sorry to hear about dear Jennie. We worked together at Ford Motor Hourly Payroll. I know she had back problems the last I talked to her. We always enjoyed her company. I was glad she was able to come a few times to Fire Mountain for our luncheons. We always exchanged Christmas cards each year. Wish we had known sooner about her passing. God Bless Her!!!!

“ I am sorry you loss Jennie in death.I hope your family find comort in Gods word the Bible,at Acts 24 15 "I have hope toward God, which hope these (men) themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous".That is a promise made by our heavenly Father Jehovah.We will see Jennie again.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Jennie will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Jennie again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ My sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one Jennie. May you take comfort in what Jesus said at John5:28 "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Complete reliance on the God of all comfort will help you to endure this difficult time. (2Corinthians1:3,4)

“ My deepest sympathy to the Becker family. This is the first time I have seen a picture of Jenny as from all of the years (28 years) of correspondence with Jenny we had never met. I could tell from speaking and from letters that Jennie was always a special lady. I will truly miss hearing from her at Christmas as she always told me about her family whom she was so proud of. God bless you Jennie - RIP ~Kathy Klimko
