“ Jennifer was and will always be my very best friend. I met Jennifer in 5th grade and from that moment we were joined at the hip, her family vacationed I went, my family vacationed she went. Two peas in a pod. We grew up and traveled very different roads of life persuing our dreams never letting go of the friendship that built us and shaped us. Jennifer will always live in me and i will forever remember all of our days together and our wonderful memories from Evergreen to Florida....I miss you Jen!!! I am so blessed to have had you in my life and experience the best friendship there is to have. Thank you for being my "Jennifer" Thank you for all the memories....See you again someday for some mrs grasses ...tab colalegos....an occasional boy hunt...a long bike ridetent nights oh and who can forget....our weekends at the high school collecting cats and seeing how many we can cram in our pockets for the ride home. I hope you knew how much I loved you!!!

“ Jennifer was my best friend in elementary school. I have such wonderful memories of growing up with her in Canton. I remember our matching red and blue twirl dresses, playing on the monkey bars in her backyard and having so much fun during our many sleep overs. Though we hadn't talked in years, Jennifer will always hold a very special place in my heart. My thoughts are with her family.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Jennifer will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Jennifer again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Jennifer seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ She's a step mom that I'll never get back again. I never got to tell her that I loved her. I wish we could've gotten to know eachother more but I'm grateful for the advice she gave me on college and boys. :) Sometimes, it felt like I was talking to a friend, rather than my step mom. I'll miss her, I really will. I pray everynight for the rest of her family. I know that she left a footprint on this world before she left.

“ Jennifer was a dear friend of mine back in grade school. I have many memories of us playing piano, dancing, slumber parties and especially our Barbie collections! Although we eventually grew apart, she and her family will always hold a special place in my heart. My thoughts are with Pat, Kirtsen, and the rest of her family.

“ Jennifer and Kirsten were my beautiful cousins as our fathers were brothers. Jennifer had a beautiful soul and I feel blessed God allowed her in my life even if for a short time. Jennifer was there for me when I lost my sister three years ago and I was with their entire family when we lost her father Robert; of whom I did consider to be my second dad. My heart is heavy as I am sure her husband and step-daughter along with the rest of her loved ones is also. The one thing that gives my heart a smile is the thought of she and her father together again. As God has called home another angel those of us left on earth must go on and share her happy memories and life.
