“ Dear Tom, Sam, Kelsey, Mike, and Bella, Our hearts and prayers go out to all of you in your pain, your grief, your sorrow, and your irreplaceable loss. Jenny was a beautiful woman, who touched the hearts of anyone who knew her. During her battle, she was a real trooper, the biggest fighter, and a head-strong woman determined to win, with the most positive attitude that we have ever witnessed in a cancer patient's fight. She is a great inspiration to any one in her situation. We really believe that her positive attitude and determination gave her the time she had. She will be truly missed. We hope that the wonderful memories you have will help sustain you through this painful and difficult time. We will always cherish the times we had together. Always remember, we are here for you---for all of you. Love, peace and prayers, Dad and Linda

“ To Tom, Kelsey, Sam, Michael and all of Jen's Family that has been sadly left behind. I was not given the pleasure of knowing Jen before she became sick. But I am thankful for the very short period of time I was given to have known her. I will think of Jen everytime I look into Kelsey's eyes!! I will pray for all of you.. I think Jen would have liked this poem: *I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. *I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when the day is done. *I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, *Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. *I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun *Of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done. Jen, Sleep with the angels.. You will be deeply missed. Lisa

“ I first met Jennifer about 10 years ago in the clubhouse of the Pineview Golf Course in Ypsilanti. We were on the Learning League together and had the pleasure of golfing against one another several times. Jennifer mentioned that I looked familiar and we found out we had previously seen each other in the halls of Miller Elementary School where Sam and Kelsey were enrolled and I was teaching. In fact, Sam, you were one of my first students, if you can remember. Mom always made an attempt to come and say Hi whenever she got the chance. I will always remember her friendly, warm smile. In fact, we kept on running into each other these past few years. The first time was at Community Financial Credit Union where she was our teller! Then I coincidentally met her at Linda's daughter, Kelly's funeral and found out she would be soon joining the Tatom family. Linda had been a dear neighbor of ours, our daughters played together for years! The last time I saw Jenny was at the Coney Island across from Discovery Middle School after her surgery. I must admit that I didn't recognize her, but she courageously came up to me and reintroduced herself. I was so touched by her kindness and inspired by her courage. Linda had graciously kept me updated with reports on Jenny's health. I often wonder why Jenny popped in and out of my life. But I feel God was reminding me that the reason we are put on this earth is for each other and to touch each other's lives in some way, even if it's a simple "Hi" or a warm smile. And that's what I will remember about Jenny, her warm smile and her kind, friendly heart. And her going out of her way just to say a simple "Hi". Our deepest sympathies go out to all of you. We are so very saddened by the loss of Jenny. May our Lord comfort you all at this difficult time. And may Jenny's warm, friendly spirit live on in each and every heart she touched. “ Please don't weep for me. Take comfort and joy in the fact that I got to experience a loving bond that many never get to. That feeling continues on in me and is something that can not be taken from me and will be with me forever. Thank you all so much for your love and support.

“ Do Not Weep For Me Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am in a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow. I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the fields of ripening grain. I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am the starshine of the night. I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. I am in the birds that sing, I am in each lovely thing. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I do not die.
