“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I have so many memories of Jennifer that make me smile and giggle. I am very thankful for that. From roller skating to our love of the Beatles, from jogging around Daryl Porter's culdesac hoping for a glimpse, to cleaning houses to go to Spring Training-then riding the elevator the Cardinals were staying in-We did meet Willie McGee, her convertible Mustang, shining flashlights from each others roofs, being a part of "The Iron Curtain" (defense) & winning state for Longhorn soccer. Unfortunately, we drifted apart after she left St. Louis, but rediscovering each other in recent years was fun. I am very sad to know we will never see each other again and that she leaves behind a beautiful family. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with all who have lost her in their lives and all who will never get the chance to know her.
