“ The Bible makes the promise: “Your dead ones Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. Respectfully, M. Franklin

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Waldeck, I am so very sorry to read about Jennifer in the newspaper. I retired from OVS at the beginning of '08. I used to be a CBI instructor and had the privledge of taking Jennifer to McDonald's for lunch or Meijer or 12 Oaks to shop. I always enjoyed being with Jennifer. She seemed to enjoy going on our outings, especially when we went out to lunch. She was such a sweetheart. I will keep you both and your family in my prayers. I'm sorry, too, that I missed the visitation. My love to you Kathie

“ We can still see your smile, feel your energy and recall Bill and Lynda's Joy at your "Sweet 16" celebration. We remember the unconditional love you so tenderly evoked in all you touched. We grieve for those who knew and loved you most. We rejoice that you are now united with God and all his angels.

“ Dearest Lynda, Bill, Katie and all of Jenna's family in Michigan, Canada and Tennessee, I remember vividly the physical connection I felt with baby Jennifer when I first held her at the time of Dave and Amy's wedding. That bond was permanent; I felt it, always the same, whether we were swimming or bowling together or I was rubbing noses with her or merely waving her off to school. Jen's lustrous curls, her angel smile and her sweet, loving nature will be missed - - but never forgotten. Love to you all from Aunt Nola
