“ On behalf of all the Capuchin brothers, I offer my deepest condolences on the passing of Jerome. It is truly humbling to know that Jerome thought of us at the time of his passing. Please be assured of the prayers of all the brothers for the entire Janssens family during this great time of grief. May perpetual light shine upon Jerome!

“ *Linda, Patty, Jerry and families,
We were so sorry to hear of the loss of your dad. Back in Redford he was the only neighbor my dad really felt a connection to . He introduced my parents to the Red Wings long before hockey was considered cool. As the years passed he remained a steadfast friend to both my dad and my Uncle Lionel. As their group of friends shrunk he could be counted on for golf or just a friendly lunch. A guy of great integrity and kindness .*

“ Janssens family, your dad was such a good friend to our uncle, Dick, and then to our dad, Lionel, and he was a wonderful support to all of us when our dad was failing. I am glad to have known him, and am so very sorry for your loss. Sally Guregian
