Thank you daddy for whispering into God's ear. On Father's Day, 2022 a few days after you had passed away. I'm so thankful that she waited for me for over a year.

“ Daddy, a year ago today, I was holding your hand. Praying the rosary with you. Playing Carole King songs. Telling you what you already knew - that you were the best dad. That I had no regrets. No judgement. Just true love and joy. I knew you would be with Jesus and Jeff soon. Going through all of that alone, with zero support or acknowledgment from family has been both devastating and insightful. I now see things in a completely different light. What matters most, is the eternal. And doing the Lord's work here on earth. Always be with me, dad. Pray for me. Help guide me. Tell Jesus and Jeff I will see them "soon". - All My Love - Karen Marie

Karen Brockman - September 13, 2022 at 07:51 PM

“ Today is Labor Day. We always looked forward to coming up for a visit. Your B-B-Q was superb. I remember our last visit was LD 2020. You didn't want us to go back home. Even Jeff commented on that to me in the car trip back. Yet Jeff was the one who went to Heaven first. That was the last time you would see him. The last time we'd all be together. I'm suddenly just realizing this as I write. Daddy, I'm so broken. My grief is almost unbearable at times. To lose the two most important men in my life, so close together, is so heartbreaking. Human words cannot describe the immense pain. Please continue to pray for me. Please go to God directly and ask him to help me unite my suffering to the Cross.

“ I remember dad singing this song often. He loved his dad so much!

*Daddy, dear old daddy,
You've been more than a daddy to me,
You might have gone with the boys ev'ry night,
You gave them up just to bring me up right;
Daddy, dear old daddy
Way above she can see,
You were more than a dad,
You're the best friend I had;
Daddy, you've been a mother to me.*
