“ Jerry was a true gentlemen and all around great guy. He was present the day I became a 4th degree knight with the Knights of Columbus. I was also fortunate to have known him during the years of the Holy Cross bowling league at Pine Tree Bowl in Dearborn. I enjoyed his humor and stories he had thru out his years of life. The story of how he disobeyed a direct order while in the Army to save a fellow soldier has stuck with me since that day at bowling. We will all miss you. God Bless you and the family.
