“ My deepest sympathies to all of Jessica's family and friends. She was taken to soon and will be greatly missed. I met Jess 3 years ago through our mutual friend Sue. She was abundant in life & love. She had a special way with all the neighborhood kids. She was always the fun one. She protected our neighborhood children from bullies, played with them, and just listened if they wanted. The kids loved to see her at the restaurant. She always made us feel special. No matter how hard her personal struggles, she was always there for you. God brings us to where we are for reasons that we may never understand, but I know He blessed us & enriched our lives with Jess. For earthly reasons we do not understand, God called her home. I know she sits in a beautiful place looking over each of us as she always did. She feels no pain and she has peace. Jess is loved and appreciated, even now. Her family & friends are in our thoughts and prayers. We will one day see her again. Until that time, we will rejoice in the life, laughter, and love she gave to us.

“ There is nothing I can say other than I am sorry for your loss. I look at my own daughter and I can imagine the pain. I hope that you and your family can find peace in knowing that Jessica changed the world in her own way and that her effect on the world will live on in the people she leaves behind. Take care, Jason and Jessica Swafford
