“ Terrie, Kenny and families.... I am so sorry to hear of your moms passing. I remember your mom as a very proud mom of both of you, she also had stories that she liked to share, and smiles to give ...remember all those great memories that you have of her. May she rest in peace for eternity. God bless all of you .

“ I remember when I would go over to Kaylies house and she would tell me stories of how she was a rebel when she was younger. It always made me laugh to hear about how crazy she was.

“ I am so terribly sorry to hear the sad news of Jessie's passing. We were such good friends from 6th grade. We lost touch with each other after we both got married and were busy with our babies and in my case I moved away. I just found her on Facebook and was so looking forward to getting reconnected. Unfortunately by then Jessie was too sick. I will always remember Jessie's sweet smile and kind heart. I'm so happy that she had such close family to take care of her. I'm sure you will miss her. Keep the happy memories of her in your hearts and let the sad times go quickly. Sincere condolences, Marilyn (Hobbs) Stephen
