“ Hi grandma jewel. It's miranda. I know I never got to grow up with you, but you were always so important to me. Im 29 almost 30 now, but I remember in first grade sending you a flat miranda, a project, along with a letter. Some kids never received a letter back, but I received one. Even though the letter and pictures are no longer with me like you, the memory is still absorbed into my soul. You talked about your cats and Bobbie. And you took me(my picture form) every where with you for the week. You told me the adventures we'd been on. And once I was older and we visited Michigan I remember how kind and loving you were. I remember my friend and I doing your nails and how extremely happy you were. You showed everyone at least twice. Made us so proud to see your beautiful smile. While I didn't get to know you as much as I would have loved, your love made a place in my heart that only you have. I was in 9th grade when you passed away, and never a day I dont wish I had had more time to know you and your stories. I love you and miss you and pray I see you in heaven one day . Ps, I have 4 kiddos. 3 boys and a girl. My girl shares your name. You will never be forgotten as long as I live.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Jewel will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Jewel again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Jewel seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Thank You for sharing your mother with us. She was one of God's true jewels here on earth. May the angels gently lay her in God's arms and may she bless all of her family from above Amen!
