“ My deepest condolences to Jill's family. Jill touched my life more than most would ever know. We shared a bond and friendship throughout the years ever since she was a student of mine way back when. She loved to talk psychology with me and loved food Italian food as I did. We shared many dinners at DeLucas that I will always treasure. Love to Jill always Darryl Goncharoff

“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com

“ Dear Rogers Family, I am so sorry to hear of Jill's passing. I've been thinking back, recalling so many happy memories of our time together in school. My earliest grade school memory is of us bonding over, and sharing, peanut butter and dill pickle sandwiches at lunch. In high school, our senior trip to Phoenix was a blast. One of the last times I talked to Jill, I answered the phone and just heard music blasting. She was at a Grateful Dead Concert, and she called because she knew I also loved their shows. We didn't say much, just listened to the song together. Even though we lost touch over the years, I never stopped loving her. I know I will never forget her. Sending love to you all, Teresa Sleiman

*Jill and I spent many, many a weekend afternoon together, talking about everything under the moon. Most of those afternoons turned into nights in the yard by the fire, and sleep overs :) We thought of Jill as family, my kids loved her as an aunt, and we were all looking forward to her coming to Florida this summer for a visit...Jill will be missed more than words can ever say.
