Grandma at her best is the last picture with Danny. I remember her last years when she would say to us “he’s stealing from me and I don’t know how” and we actually didn’t believe her. The biggest mistake we’ve ever made as a family. She was the greatest person in the world. I love looking at photos of us together, none of which were added to her obituary. Another class act by Jerald Lee McComb. Please note he also had an estate sale and sold off her possessions in which we had to attend to buy back what we could. Bravo, Jerald McComb and Janis Mondelli.
