“ Oh Auntie Joan so many memories fill my mind of you. We had so much fun with our get togethers our vacations, birthday's and holidays. You 3 sisters were always so silly from your little matching house dresses you all wore. Going down the slide into the lake laughing trying not to get your hair wet. Trying to sink the rafts! You were my summer mom for a couple weeks when I got to stay at your house! Your laughter and fun definitely passed to your children. One memory that stands out was on vacation in a restaurant and the song My Ding a Ling came on you and Aunt Terry were singing laughing and slapping the table it was so funny. You will be missed but what joy your feeling now. Love and prayers to my cousin's

“ My dear auntie, you were such a joy to be around! Your infectious laughter fills my memories, your bond of love with mom & Aunt Terry showed me a beautiful, fun loving side to sisterhood. You loved your family and God and I know there is a happy, slightly irreverent family celebration going on in heaven!
To my cousins Tom & Sherri, Ann & Scott, Bobby, and Jordan & Mary and Kendra, our families have always had great get togethers where your mom's laughter filled the air. She will always be a part of you, keep her joy in your hearts.
Our prayers for peace of are with you all.
Love, Carol & Joe

“ Joan was such a sweet sweet lady. She was at Tom and Sherri's house often when my kids were growing up. She cared for them just like her own grandkids. My kids actually referred to her as “ Grandma Joan”. She will be greatly missed ❤️🙏❤️
