“ To the Teller Family - We offer our condolences and this reflection:

*In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away
Our hearts were broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain,
How could we wish you back with us
To suffer again.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

“ Dear family of Joan Marie,

I know how you feel because my sister, dad, and me are feeling the same way. You see, your mother and my mother are both having their services planned by this funeral home. They were both 60 years old, both died on the same day, and it looks like they both lost their fight to this terrible disease. I can only hope that they became instant friends upon meeting and are both looking down upon us now throughout this awful difficult time. May God help us all get through this devastating loss somehow. . . someday.
