

Joan G. Turner (nee Fecteau)

October 2, 2004

Joan Turner (nee Fecteau) age 42, passed away on Saturday October 2, 2004 in Richmond, Virginia after a brief illness, with loved ones at her side. Joan was a licensed practical nurse for more than two decades in the Newport News, Virginia area. Most recently she had worked in private health care. She was born in Detroit and attended Algonac High School, later receiving her GED in Marine City, Michigan. She obtained her LPN diploma in 1980 in Newport News, VA and worked in hospital care. Five years later, she underwent additional training to specialize in geriatric and home health care. She leaves behind her partner of thirteen years, Paul White; as well as her mother, Joan Fecteau (Paul) Guzik of Plymouth MI; siblings Karen Gates of Louisville KY; Karol Fecteau of Stevens Point WI; Susan Fecteau of Ann Arbor MI; Paul Fecteau of St. Charles IL; Maureen Goletz of Macomb MI; and sister-in-law Debbie Fecteau of Rockford MI; and their spouses and children. She was preceded in death by her father Raymond Fecteau and her brother Gary.

Joan did not travel an easy path in life, yet she managed to rise above challenges she faced with the help of those who cared about her. She is especially remembered for her interest in and kindness to nieces and nephews. She loved flowers and flowering trees and often said she yearned for a garden of her own.

She will be in state Thursday 9:30 AM at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, 47650 North Territorial, Plymouth (at Beck Road) with funeral mass at 10 AM. Visitation will be Wednesday 2 - 9 PM, with a scripture service at 7 PM, at Vermeulen Trust 100 Funeral Home, 46401 West Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth (between Sheldon and Beck.)
