“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Jo-Anne will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Jo-Anne again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Jo-Anne seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Although I never had the priviledge to meet Jo-Ann, she seems to have been truely loved. May your family take comfort in God, who is described as the God of comfort and who promises us in Revelation 21:4 that soon death and pain will be no more.
