“ My husband and I would like to convey our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of your beloved Joanne. Words are sometimes hard to express at moments like this, but we truly understand the pain of losing one so dear. We just wanted to share with you something that has helped us get through a similar time in our life. Psalm 34:18 reassures us that we are never alone and John 11:14-44 shows us the experience of Jesus, resurrecting Lazarus, here on earth, before the very eyes of those he loved. We can only imagine the tears of joy, when we too, are reunited with our dear loved ones again. (John 5:(28) Joanne will surly be missed by many of those who's lives she touched. Remember the experiences you shared together, and learn from them, hold them close to your hearts and cherish them. May you find comfort from your bible and those who surround you at this very difficult time. Our condolences to all of you.

“ I woke up and you weren't here. I called your name and you didn't answer. I miss you Joanna. I wish I could of taken away some of your struggles.I know a person like you is in a better place. When you told me that i must of done something bad in my life for something like this to happen to me,I wish I had a better answer than it was a mistake by man,God wouldn't do such a thing.Please watch over me and maybe some day send me a sign your ok.I love you so much my baby.
