“ *Jack was a most endearing person and he was always so willing to help under any circumstance. His charming demeanor was inspiring and always a joy. So very saddened to hear of his passing and will miss him enormously.
Both my wife and I have worked with Jack for so many years. We offer our condolences to his whole family for all the hurt they are going through. May he rest in Peace.

“ I've worked with Jack for many years and he was always a great person to work with. I'll miss having my hot chocolate in the morning in the office with you while we caught up on the work-du-jour. My condolences to the family. Jack frequently talked with pride about all of you.
