“ My love, my best friend, my dearest husband. I will miss you everyday of my life! Being loved by you has made me a better person, i just feel so empty without you. Your smile, goofy sense of humor and great compassion for anyone needing a helping hand will keep you in all our hearts forever. I love you baby!!!

“ John, You were the best friend a girl could ever have. Noone will ever fill your shoes. You will always have a special place in my heart. With you gone my life will never be as complete as it was with you in it. You always put a smile on my face and love and laughter in my heart. My heart is very heavy and sad but the one thing that gives me hope is knowing I will see you again someday Until we meet again may God keep you his care I Love You My Friend

“ My father, who was liked by everyone he meet. You taught me many things, but most of all to be strong and to live life to the fullest, especially when times are tough. You will be missed by many. Though I will miss you, I am comforted by the knowledge you are finally at peace.

“ I am so blessed to have had such a genuine, loving father, who taught me to never to take life for granted, to cherish evert moment and to be kind to others. Thank you for leaving us with so many precious memories, I will cherish them for ever. I will miss seeing your smiling face, but cant wait to be reunited with you some day in heaven, until then you will always be in my thoughts and heart. I love you with all my heart and soul dad. your little girl forever. Joy-

“ Joy, Jhonny, & Debbie we are so sorry for your loss. I will never forget his smiling face. He was so sweet when my dad had his kidney transplant and helped along with Joy to get the house ready for my dad to come home. Take care in the days to come and we hope that fond memories will fill your heart until you can see him again. God be with you in your loss. Love From, Kelly & Tom and family
