“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I care about all the emotional pain you are experiencing, but most importantly God cares. At 1Peter 5:7 Jeovah God urges you to throw all your burdens upon him because he cares for you. Not only does he care for you, he promises to end death forever. I invite you to read Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:26. You can put your full trust and confidence in God's promises because everything he says happens. (Isaiah 25:11) Please feel free to contact me or any other Jehovah's Witnesses. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ To the Porter Family: Although I have never met you or Mr. Porter, I feel compelled to give you my condolence. Losing a loved one is tough and by reading his obituary I can tell John was really loved. I have lost loved ones in death but the thing that keeps me going is comfort from the bible. The bible holds out a hope where we will see our dead loved ones in perfect health. a particular scripture that is very comforting is at Revelation 21:3,4 please read it. Again I am so sorry for your loss and my prayers will be with you.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is never an easy experience. One thing that helps me cope with the loss of someone is the scripture found at John 5:28, 29. It states, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life..." Soon you will be able to see Jack again because God (Jehovah) promises to resurrect those sleeping in death. I hope that you gain comfort as I have from our creators promise.
