“ To my dear friend, John,
I always looked forward to seeing you at the gym for our "pinky hug". You introduced me to so many of my current, close gym friends. You shared so many interesting stories about your Naval days on the Submarine, your favorite Corvette, going fishing, rock finding and stamp collecting. I remember bringing you a Rutabaga to the gym because you said you liked them so much. Whatever color I wore to the gym was always your favorite color. I know you missed your special girl, Kathy, as you spoke about her often. I know you are together again in Heaven. Finally, your response to "Have a nice day, John!" was "I will do my bestest!".
It was a blessing to have been your friend! RIP until we meet again.

John and I went to Planet Fitness together and were friends, only to discover we were both in the Navy and both served on submarines making us brothers. He loved fishing and after several times of asking to go with I said ok. That day I remembered.....I hate fishing which John picked up on. He asked why did I come fishing with him, answering it was never about the fish but the time with you. To say John loved women would be a gross understatement, he had a way to make all of them feel special. I have no idea how many angels there are in heaven, but John will have nicknames for every one. Welcome home my friend and brother. Michael D.

“ John was a beacon of light. He simply walked into the room and everyone smiled. He was always someone I looked forward to seeing everyday at the gym. He made a point to say hello to everyone and ensure they were having a good day. He always knew how to make you smile. He shared so many amazing stories and memories with me throughout the 3 years I have known him. He will be missed by so many. Everyone at Planet Fitness will always remember him and he will be talked about for years to come. We were all so lucky to be a part of his daily routine. May you rest in peace John ☐☐
