“ To the Family of John N. Hammang. My deepest and sincere Condolences to you for the loss of your dear loved one John, he surely will be missed... What helps to sustain me when losing a dear loved one is the Bible's infallible and inspired word. Jesus Christ said: "Sanctify them ("Set them apart ; and make holy) by means of the truth; your word is truth. So, God's word the Holy Scriptures are Inspired and for our benefit. He did not leave us alone to ourselves to guide or direct one step. (Jeremiah 10:23) We have to put faith in his promises and one is stated at: John 5:28,29. It states: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus') and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life...Soon we will, just as Jehovah has promised see our dead loved ones again. But there is something we must do to be there to invite them back under the best of conditons. What? Jesus said: "This means everlasting life, their coming to know you, (Jehovah) the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ.- John 17:3). I hope this gives you some comfort. see www.jw.org for more information.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. John will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see John again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. John seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort.
