“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear Holloway Family, I am so sorry to learn of John's passing. I was out of the country on vacation last week, and didn't return until after the funeral. I wish I could have seen you all in person, but please accept this expression of sympathy in lieu of my presence at the visitation. I have many good memories of my friendship with the Holloway boys, and John's smiling face and good nature are among those memories. He is not forgotten. Sincerely, Paul Spike

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Holloway family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.
