“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Katie and I just wanted to extend our condolences on the passing of Grandpa Hull! Your dad was truly a unique guy who I had always respected and loved seeing and spending time with! I knew him as someone who epitomized class, dignity and respect – always with a smile, a big “Michael” and of course, that ever-strong handshake! J The Super Bowl parties and Hull BBQ's certainly won't be the same without him and he will surely be missed!! Please give our sympathies to your mom, Don, Doug, John and Sharon for us and if there is anything we can do for you guys, please let me know.

“ I just heard that John passed away. I am so very sorry for your families loss. Your father was one of the finest men I have ever known in my life and had a tremendous affect on my life as a mentor and a friend. It wasn't just we work we did together, there were a lot of heart to heart talks and countless laughs too. Be assured that I, among many, will never forget him! Unfortunately I am going out of town tomorrow morning and will be unable to attend services. Please give my condolences to the rest of your family.

“ To all of "Mr. Hull's" family (he will always be Mr. Hull to me): My memories of your Dad will be with me always. He laughed often. He won the respect of everyone around him. You always felt better after speaking with him. His wit was better than most. He appreciated those with different points of view, even when he disagreed. He loved his family and friends and he loved his country. The world was a better place with him in it and his legacy will live on in all of you. My heart is filled with sorrow for now, but my fond memories of your Dad make me remember that dying is nothing to fear when you have lived your life as your father lived his -- Peace be with all of you.
