“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. John will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see John again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. John seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ We were sorry to see Jack's death in the paper. We remember him and his brother Jim & sister-in-law Cheryl from our years at Fairlane Assembly of God. I have had hip replacement surgery recently and could not make it to the funeral home to offer condolences. He was a good man and we will remember him and his walk with our Lord fondly. To Jim & Cheryl, a special hello and God Bless you and yours. We will remember the family in our prayer time.
