“ *I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com or visit our web site at jw.org were you will find answers to many bible questions such as What hope for are dead love ones? “ Our thoughts and prayers are for the Jeckewicz family at this difficult time. John was such a good friend to have growing up in the neighborhood. He kept our group of friends in tears laughing all the time. Some of the best days growing up in that neighborhood were spent hanging out with John. So sorry for your loss.

“ I knew John through my brother Brad. As the younger sister, I always like talking to his friends. John was one of my favorite. He was kind (to the kid sister) and yes, I remember him being funny, always making us laugh. At the reunion, we (Brad and I) were looking for him. I wish we all could of had "one more laugh" with him. Thoughts and prayers to John's entire family.

“ I worked for Eastern Airlines for 20 years in Detroit. After Eastern went out of business, I came to work for Northwest Airlines Cargo in Detroit. I met John then and worked with him in the same crew. I always found John to be friendly to me, and pleasant to work with. He was a very nice man. We had struck up a friendship, during my 2 years with Northwest. I left Northwest in 1994 and went to work for British Airways Cargo, in Detroit. Whenever I came to Northwest Cargo to transfer or pick up transfer cargo, I would look for John and visit with him. I am sorry to hear of his passing. I give my heartfelt condolences to all of his family at this very sad time. RIP John. You were my friend. God Bless You. Jared Howe

“ Hard work, ridiculous sense of humor and the ability to tell jokes that I know are terrible, changing the words to songs, and the ever so annoying "who sings it".... These are some of my best qualities, and I know where they came from ???. Love you dad, always have, always will. Sorry for not being around the last several years, my heart and prayers are with you always, love, Jay
