“ Patty, Nancy and Amy I'm so sorry for your loss. John was blessed to have you. I was touched by the care and love you all showed him. You did a beautiful thing bringing John home, and allowing him to pass in peace in the presence of those HE chose. Patty, it was your hand he held in the final moments of his life. It's unfortunate that others would use this forum to be unkind. Know you have my deepest condolences for your loss, and utmost admiration for the gift you gave John. He will be missed by all . God Bless

“ John, you will be in our hearts and prayers always. Thanks for the laughs the three of us shared. Moreover, we are sorry that you did not listen to us over a year ago, when we tried to talk to you about your health. But now you are free of earths bounds. Fly Free!

“ Patti, Nancy and Amy our hearts and our prayers go out to you. You have been through a most painful time, but you have handled it with grace and dignity. John was a lucky man to have had such love and devotion all of his life with you, but especially when he was ill. You honored his wishes, you held him in such esteem and completely encircled him in your loving arms. John knew he was loved. He knew he was respected as a man, husband and father. He was rich indeed in all those attributes. He is at peace now, a peace well earned by a life well lived. Patti, Nancy and Amy, you would have made him proud in the way you carried out his final days according to his will. May God bless all of you and fill you with his peace and his love. That's what you gave to John, he could not have asked for more. Love always, Helen and Jimmy

“ John...just want to thank you for the 30+ years of friendship, memories and being there. You could be so stubborn...but yet had such a generous heart. It hurts in so many ways but you are now at peace and your struggle for true happiness and love here is over. I'll never forget you....remember.

K,

“ Sorry to hear about your passing. If only your family would have treated you better, you may have lived a longer, fuller life with happiness rather dis-respect. You will be missed. Wish we could have come to see you!
